“ Rhonda

It is very hard to write a tribute to Pat.. He was so many things: kind,loving,generous, supportive, happy,funny,thankful, and on and on. I have many happy memories of him,
Linda and Joe. He loved Joe Pike as his friend and was very supportive to us during Joe's battle with cancer and death. I know he is using that beautiful voice in God's glorious choir while laughing and rejoicing with all his friends and family that have gone on before him.. May God be with you and hold you in his loving arms. My prayers are with you.
Much love,
Cheryl Pike

“ Pat was my friend here in Ardmore. We shared many good times and lots of talks on the back porch when he got burned at Valero. he was a good mason and shiner. one time I looked up saw a vehicle following really to close and it would bump my truck. after a few bumps I got out with a large stick and started walking toward the car, he jumped out and hollered---just wanted to see if you was awake going to slow down main street. that is Pat. prayers and thoughts going to his family, I will miss him much. god bless. long live cowboys and adios Pat. jim garner

“ Rhonda, I am so sorry to hear of Pat's passing. But, you and I both know that he is singing in the Heavenly Choir with that beautiful voice of his and making Heaven even more joyful with his loving, funny nature. As the Bible says "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones" Prov 17:22 NIV. Pat knew this and used his humor to minister to all around him. When I was at one of the lowest and most hopeless times in my life you and he helped me through a big part of it. I will always remember that and appreciate it. Do you remember when I'd lost so much weight from the stress and turmoil of my life, that Pat offered to give me a shot of Ivermec, because he said that I was so skinny that I MUST be wormy! That made me laugh so hard and lifted my spirit and after that from time to time he'd send word through you that if I didn't start eating and putting on weight , again, that he had a shot of Ivermec waiting for me. I appreciated that in his funny, kind way, he was saying that he was concerned about me and that he wanted me to take care of myself. And, another time when I was trying to find my way, spiritually, and I'd said that I didn't know what religion I was, because my mama was Baptist and my grandma was Pentecostal, Pat quipped "Well, that makes you Bapti-Costal." Again, in his funny, kind way, I felt he was saying that it was okay to keep my roots, but to seek my own path, as well. God spoke through Pat through his humor and his music. And, you two together showed me how a marriage could be and should be. Thank you, Rhonda, and may God keep you and comfort you, now and always. And, Pat, we will all see you, again, one day, and what a beautiful, joyful day that will be! Love, hugs and prayers, always...Susan

“ I met Patrick back in 1979 when he, his Mother, and his brother Waylon and my family became neighbors on Glasgow Street in Wisner. We lived across the street from each other. Patrick was a young man, I think that at that time he was in junior high, with a wonderful smile, a love of laughter, and a great love for his family. Those things about him never changed - that wonderful smile, his love of laughter (his own and the laughter of anyone he was around), and his great love for his family. Over the years, he added some other loves to his life: his love of Jesus, his love of music, and more family, and many friends. My prayers are with all of us who grieve for him. I pray that God will comfort , as only He can, and surround all those who loved Patrick with His love and His peace, and yes, His joy.

“ Rhonda you are all in my thoughts and prayers! I will always remember the first time I meet Pat, it was at the bowling alley restaurant I sat down and he started in on one of his stories I looked at you then told him he was full of bull and you said I was so right. He was an amazing guy always smiling . He had an beautiful voice I would have never believed he could sing until I heard it myself. We love you and if we can do anything please let us know. May God be with you during your loss.

“ OMG Rhonda I didn't even know Pat was sick. I am sorry for your loss.

Diana Thompson - September 10 at 11:03 PM

“ I worked with Pat at the Tota I/UltraMar Diamond Shamrock/Valero refinery. He was not only a prankster, but a hoot...I can still hear his voice when he came into my office saying, "hello beautiful". To me, he was so nice and mannerly, always a gentleman. Godspeed Pat, you are seeing Jesus gave to face, and He is hearing your beautiful voice.

Debbie Lackey - September 10 at 10:01 PM

“ Pat & I became very good friends over the years at Valero. He & I hired in at the same time in 1994. He was most certainly a prankster! We will miss him greatly & all the laughter that he brought our lives.
May the Good Lord comfort you & your family in this time of sorrow.

“ I hope you traveled across that river with the angels and saw the multitude welcoming you on Heaven's shore. I hope you saw the Lord and felt His great love shine on you. I hope you saw your Mama and got a big ole hug from her. And I hope Iris and Dale met you on that shore up there along with the other people you loved. I hope you don't have a pain in your body. And I hope that you are feeling so at home and happier than you have ever been, even more than in those happy childhood days of Wisner that you always talked about. I hope heaven is way more than you could have ever sang or dreamed about. I love you Pat.

Mary Simms Kimbrough - September 10 at 03:59 PM

“ So sorry to learn of Pat's death. My sympathies go out to his family that had already suffered the loss of his mom and my dear friend Linda.

Hold on to the great memories of your father, grandfather and brother. My God bless.

“ So sad, you were always joking and laughing. You will be missed Patrick by so many people. Tell your mom I said hi, I know she was glad to see you.

Sandy Prince - September 10 at 02:37 PM

“ Pat I still can't believe this. I keep waiting for u to send me a message, laughing, and telling me that its all just one of your crazy jokes. You was definitely a prankster and enjoyed every minute of it, esp. if you was getting the best of the other person. Go on and enjoy heaven!! I know your momma met u at the gates with her arms wide open!! RIP Patrick!!!
